Sprint Planning Template · Expert version

A sprint planning template helps a Scrum Team agree a Sprint Goal, check capacity, select Product Backlog items and plan the first tasks, all in one view the team can use throughout the Sprint.

How to use this template

1. Fill in the Capacity tab: available days per person and a realistic focus factor.
2. Agree the Sprint Goal with the Product Owner.
3. Select the top Product Backlog items that support the goal and fit the team's capacity and recent velocity.
4. Break each item into tasks and confirm acceptance criteria.
5. Use the Status column during the Sprint and review it at the Sprint Review.

Tips

- Plan to about 80% of capacity to leave room for the unexpected.
- One clear Sprint Goal beats a list of unrelated items.
- Bring refined items to planning; see backlog refinement.
- Time-box planning to 8 hours for a one-month Sprint.
